24TH TASMANIAN WINE SHOW

The Tasmanian Wine Show, the regional show for all the State's wines, was first held in 1991, with James Halliday as Chairman of judges of both panels; one of judges awarding medals and one of winemakers providing technical feedback.

Huon Hooke joined James to judge the Show the following year, and they returned most years since then, overseeing the growth of the Tasmanian wine industry and to fly-fish the State's rivers and lakes. The contribution of both James and Huon over 24 years has been immense. Huon is now Chief of Judges and James, the Emeritus Chairman, continues his active involvement including the Trophy Presentation Dinner.

The third judge position on the panel has provided opportunities for both local and international judges. Also many in the industry have experienced judging for the first time as an Associate at the Tasmanian Wine Show.

The ongoing support of our sponsors is greatly appreciated.

The volunteers who have selflessly given up their time over many years fully deserve our thanks, and the contribution of Nigel Donachie as Chief Stewart and of the current stewarding team are acknowledged.

The tremendous contribution of the Tasmanian Wine Show Committee, plus their partners and families, has been vital for the ongoing success of the Show.

The Committee is committed to supporting students making a contribution to viticulture. Amongst other initiative it is offering an ongoing Tasmanian Wine Show Society Honours Scholarship at the School of Agricultural Science, University of Tasmania.

The very high strike rate of medals awarded at the annual Tasmanian Wine Show is a reflection of the quality of Tasmanian wine.

The Tasmanian wine industry is thanked for its ongoing support of the Tasmanian Wine Show.

May the Tasmanian wine industry and the Tasmanian Wine Show continue to grow and flourish over the next 24 years.

Cheers!

Phil Laing

President – Tasmanian Wine Show

7	Eddystone Point Sauvignon Blanc	2013	Bronze
12	Josef Chromy Sauvignon Blanc	2013	Bronze
16	Roaring Beach Sauvignon Blanc	2013	Top Gold

Disappointing class. There was a big gulf between the medal wines and the rest. Many wines were green and hollow with unbalanced acid and a lack of drinkability.

Wine	Name	Vintage	Award

29	Abel's Tempest Chardonnay	2012	Gold

Great Class. A pleasure to judge. The class showcases the great quality of Aussie Chardonnay, of which Tasmania is a leading exponent. It is possible to have delicacy with intensity and palate length! Top wine is a perfect example.

17	Josef Chromy Zdar Chardonnay	2009	Bronze
20	Clemens Hill Aurelia Chardonnay	2008	Gold

Class Summary

Tassie Chardonnay does age superbly and the best here are outstanding examples/ But it was almost a class of two halves- They were either very good or not at all. Some of the non-medal wines were over developed.

Class 16 Medium Sweet Wines

Wine	Name	Vintage	Award

13	Pressing Matters Riesling R69	2009	Gold

Class summary

It was really difficult to put these into a hierarchy, as so many wines staked a strong claim. Superb wines, and those with some age demonstrated how these wines respond to cellaring.

Strong class, with the aged wine showing especially well, led by the Gewurztraminer, which may surprise some.

56	Clemens Hill Pinot Noir	2012	Silver
58	Moores Hill Pinot Noir	2012	Gold
59	Goaty Hill Pinot Noir	2012	Bronze

Class Summary

A very strong class with a high strike-rate and plenty of highlights. A pleasing lack of either bretty or green wines, but the chief problems were over ripeness and excessive oak. A lot of wines are trending towards a big, deeply coloured and very ripe style but they're missing the higher – toned complexing aromatics. There's also a preponderance of spicy cinnamon – like oak which can lead to same-ishness

Class 20 2011 Pinot Noir

38	Richard Meyman Wines "Bersenbruck"	2011	Bronze
40	Home Hill Kelly's Reserve Pinot Noir	2011	Gold
42	Gala Estate Pinot Noir	2011	Bronze

Class Summary

Despite the difficulties of the vintage, this was a very strong class that surprised the judges. Not only were there plenty of high-scorers, but there were few poor wines. We might have expected lighter, more ephemeral wines from 2011, but these wines had good concentration and tannin structure. Tasmanian Pinot makers, take a bow!

Class 21 2010 and older Pinot Noir

Wine	Name	Vintage	Award
1	Providence 'Miguet' Reserve Pinot Noir	2010	Bronze
3	Silk Hill Pinot Noir	2010	Bronze

15	Richard Meyman Wines "Bersenbrock"	2010	Bronze
25	Summerleas Wines Pinot Noir	2006	Bronze

Disappointing, especially considering the highly rated 2010 vintage. A lot of wines were stale and/or too oaky

4	Glaetier - Dixon Mon Pere	2012	Silver
6	Motton Terraces	2013	Bronze

Class Summary

The top wine showcases all the good attributes of cool-climate Shiraz without any of the drawbacks; an elegant, spicy, medium-bodied wine. The Tempranillo is on the right track but the acidity needs taming.
