SPECIAL THANKS TO David Dunn and the wonderful staff at Drysdale North Campus, TasTAFE Launceston.

32nd TASMANIAN WINE SHOW

What a wonderful show! The 32nd Show was a triumph of teamwork.

The judges, stewards and the committee, all of whom volunteer their time and expertise work together seamlessly to facilitate the judging that brings about the results which annually show case the Tasmanian Wine Industry.

My heartfelt thanks to them all, their names are listed near the front of the 'Catalogue of Results'.

Virginia Willcox, our Western Australian judge from Vasse Felix and Natasha Johns, our senior associate judge from Victoria, were unable to attend due to logistical complications brought about by covid. Likewise, Mister Barnett, who was scheduled to co-present the Export Wine of show trophy was unable to attend. We hope to see them in 2023, along with international judge Sarah Ahmed of the United Kingdom.

The Show exists to showcase the Tasmanian Wine Industry, which in turn supports the show. Thankyou to all our supports and sponsors, especially the Roberts family of Riverdale, the Department of State Growth and Drysdale TasTAFE, north and south, for their ongoing support.

The Tasmanian Wine Show has many unique aspects. To go ahead with 400 entries from 70 exhibitors is a remarkable achievement. The winning wines were wonderful.

The Trophies for 2022 are framed prints by Tasmanian artist Tom Samek. We thank Trace Samek for making them available. Tom was a great friend of the Show who created many trophies over a couple of decades.

Vale Tom.

Cheers!
